

ST. JOHN'S COLLEGE, ANNAPOLIS.

Rev. HENRY HUMPHREYS, A. M. Principal, and Professor of Moral Science. EDWARD STILES, M. D. Professor of Ancient Languages. THOMAS B. SWINNEY, A. M. Professor of Mathematics and Civil Engineering. Rev. JOHN DICKER, A. M. Professor of Grammar. CHARLES T. FLUSSER, Professor of Modern Languages. Present number of Students, 63.

COURSE OF STUDIES, EXPENSES, &c. The following information, by order of the Board, will show the present state and prospects of the Institution.

The Professor of Grammar, will take charge of the English Department, and will have in charge during the hours prescribed by the Board, the ordinary course of instruction in this department. Students will be fitted for admission into College, and they may take standing as Freshmen, whenever they shall sustain an examination on the following

PREPARATORY STUDIES, VIZ: English Grammar; Geography; Arithmetic; Latin Grammar; Cicero's Prose; Euclid's Elements; Caesar's Commentaries, or Sallust; Vergil's Aeneid, or Latin Prose; Greek Grammar; Greek Dialects; and Jacob's Greek Reader; and Prose.

Pupils not intending to enter College, will also be received into the English Department, and will pursue such branches of Education, embraced in the course, as may suit their particular views. A course of Lectures on Education in Primary Schools, will be delivered whenever a class of young men shall have been formed, who may wish to qualify themselves to become Teachers.

The course of studies for the classes in College, have been arranged as follows, viz:

FRESHMAN CLASS.

- 1st Term: Folsom's Latin; Greek Major (Xenophon, Herodotus, Thucydides); Greek and Roman Antiquities, History, and Mythology; Horace, (Odes)—Virgil's Georgics.
- 2d Term: Greek Major (Lysias, Demosthenes, Isocrates); Algebra, with Arithmetic revised; Horace, (Satires and Epistles); Greek Major (Xenophon's Memorabilia, Plato).
- 3d Term: Algebra completed; Translations, Prose, and Declamations during the year.

SOBRIOR CLASS.

- 1st Term: Juvenal, (Loverett's); Homer's Iliad, (Robinson's); Plane Geometry, (Legendre's); Terence's Comedies, or Quintilian.
- 2d Term: Greek Major, (Olympey & Hesiod); Rhetoric and Belles Lettres—(Blair); Greek Major—(Tragedians); Logarithms; Plane and Spherical Trigonometry.
- 3d Term: Exercises in original Composition, and Elocution, during the year.

JUNIOR CLASS.

- 1st Term: Greek Major, (Minor Poets); Applications of Trigonometry to the Mensuration of Heights and Distances, Navigation, Surveying, Levelling, &c.
- 2d Term: Tacitus—(History); Conic Sections; Chemistry, with Lectures; Tacitus—(Manners of the Germans and life of Agricola); Natural Philosophy, with Lectures.
- 3d Term: Elements of Criticism, with Lectures on the Fine Arts; Debates, Compositions, and Declamations during the year.

SENIOR CLASS.

- 1st Term: Natural Philosophy—finished, with Lectures; Horace De Arte Poetica, with Lectures on Taste, and a Revision of Latin; Logic, and philosophy of the Mind; Astronomy—with Lectures.
- 2d Term: Political Economy—with Lectures; Evidence of Christianity, & Natural Theology; Laws of Nations; Constitution, and Civil and Political History of the United States; Butler's Analogy; Civil Engineering—(construction of Machines, Bridges, Roads, Canals, &c.); Mineralogy and Geology.
- 3d Term: Declamations of Original Pieces, Extempore Debates, and exercises in Criticism, during the year.

The study of the Modern Languages, shall be so arranged, as not materially to interfere with the College course.

The officers of instruction, will endeavour to make the course of study as thorough as possible, and in no case will a Scholar be allowed to pass, to an advanced standing, till he shall have sustained all the previous examinations, to the satisfaction of the Faculty.

In the Departments of Chemistry and Natural Philosophy, instruction will be given, and Lectures will be delivered, as heretofore, by the Principal, and the other Professors, until these Chairs shall be permanently supplied. Particular attention will be given to exercises in Rhetoric and Oratory; and one forenoon of each week, will be spent, drilling the Students, in a thorough course of Reading and Speaking. These exercises will be conducted by the Principal; and the Members of the Senior Class, will always be required to declaim pieces of their own composition. The Classification, which takes place at each general Examination, subjects those who are deficient, to the necessity of remaining in a lower grade; while, on the other hand, the hope of reaching a high standing, in a shorter than ordinary period, is held out to all who are ambitious to advance at a more rapid rate, than the usual average of a Class. A permanent record of the relative standing of the Members in each Class, is kept by the Faculty, and serves as a guide, in awarding the honors of the College. The principal test of the Student's proficiency, will be found in the Lecture Room, where he will undergo an Examination of one hour's duration, for each Lesson; and those Members of the higher Classes, who are permitted, under the discretion of the Principal, to have their rooms out of College, will be visited, by the Principal, and the Professors, during the hours appointed, for their encouragement and aid in the prosecution of their studies. They must not be absent themselves from their rooms, during the hours of study, especially in the evening, except by permission from one of the Faculty; and a close attention will be paid to the habits of the Students, that good morals may be cultivated and preserved.

DISCIPLINARY REGULATIONS.

The Students will be required to attend public worship, in this City, both morning and afternoon; and Ministers for the several Churches, will make returns of all absentees, who will give an account of their absence to the Principal. The Roll will be called, also, before the daily devotions at the College. No Student will, at any time, leave the City, without express leave obtained from the Principal. That the public may rest assured of the prevalence of no particular sectarian influence at the College, the following clause is extracted from the Charter, with the letter and spirit of which, the Officers of instruction, will invariably comply. The second section of the thirty seventh chapter of the laws of Maryland, requires, that the said College shall be founded and maintained forever, upon a most liberal plan, for the benefit of youth of every religious denomination, who shall be freely admitted to equal privileges and advantages of education, and to all the literary honors of the College, according to their merit, without requiring or enforcing any religious or civil test, or urging their attendance upon any particular religious worship or service, other than what they have been educated in, or have the consent and approbation of their parents or guardians to attend.

DISCIPLINARY REGULATIONS.

A record of all delinquencies at College exercises will be kept, and sent to each parent or guardian, at the close of every term. And whenever a Student shall be found failing to secure the end for which he will have been placed at the College, he may be sent home privately, except in cases of a misdemeanor, or offence against the laws, when he shall be punished by the ordinary penalties. By the adoption of a kind and parental demeanor, on the part of the Officers, it is hoped that such extreme cases will be avoided; and from the various advantages of location for the College, it is believed, that few places promise this immunity, in a higher degree, than the City of Annapolis. Its population is not large—the situation is central—its healthfulness, is surpassed by that of no place in the Southern States—access to the College, from all parts of the Union, by which parents would wish to hold communication with their sons, is most frequent and easy, and the expenses of living are comparatively small. Annapolis is the Seat of the Government of the State; and the time of the Annual Commencements, which happens during the Session of the Legislature, affords a high incentive to young men, to distinguish themselves, by their literary performances.

ADMISSION.

Candidates for any standing in the College, will be required to bring from their teachers, testimonials of good moral character; and, in no case, will a Student be received from any other College, to the same standing in this, unless he shall bring, from the President, or other authority of such College, a certificate of his honorable dismission.

EXPENSES, &c.

It has not been thought advisable to establish any common Board, including bedding, washing, and room rent, may be had, however, in private families in the city, for 120 dollars per annum. The charges in the regular College bills, will be, as follows:—and are payable quarterly, and in advance.

English Department, - - - $24 per annum
Preparatory Classes, - - - $40 do. do.
Freshman and Sophomore Classes, - - - $40 do. do.
Senior and Junior Classes, - - - $50 do. do.

An abatement of the College bills may be made, to necessitous Students; and provision is secured for the gratuitous instruction of ten Students, who may bring the proper testimonials for that purpose.

COMMENCEMENTS.

The Annual Commencements, take place in February, when all Degrees are to be conferred. The Faculty will assign to the Candidates for the Baccalaureate, and for the Master's Degree, the parts to be performed; and if any one should refuse the parts assigned, or neglect to attend, his Degree may be withheld.

VACATIONS.

The regular Vacations, shall be from the last Wednesday in July, till the first Monday in September—from the 23d of December, till the first Monday in January—from Good Friday, till the Mouday week following; and the Fourth of July.

The alterations, in the course of studies, which have taken place, on the late appointment of a Principal, seemed to be required, by the general advancement of Education; and it is hoped, that the advantages for a substantial and complete acquaintance with the several branches of knowledge, which the Institution now holds out to the public, will meet the wants and wishes of its numerous Friends, and especially of the sons of Maryland.

St. John's College, was founded and endowed, in the year 1784, under the auspices of men venerable for their patriotism and learning; and has the honour of having educated for the State, some of her most distinguished public men. The Board of Visitors and Governors, in their efforts to discharge the duties of their trust devolving upon them, look for the cordial approbation and co-operation of the alumni of their alma mater, and for such a portion of the public favor, as may seem due to an ancient and cherished Seminary of the State, that her existence and usefulness, may be perpetual.

By order of the Board,
March 5. A. C. MAGRUDER, President.

THE DYING BOY.

It must be sweet, in childhood, to give back the spirit to its Maker, ere the heart has grown familiar with the paths of sin, And soon to garner up its bitter fruits.— I know a boy, whose infant feet had trod Upon the blossoms of some seven springs, And when the eighth came round, and called him out To revel in its light, he turned away, And sought his chamber, to the down and die.

'Twas night—he summoned his accoutred friends, And on this wise, bestowed his last request:— Mother!—I'm lying now! There's a deep suffocation in my breast; As if some heavy land my bosom pressed; And on my brow I feel the cold sweat stand; My nose grow dry, and tremulous—and my breath Comes freely up!—Oh, tell me! is this death? Mother, your hand— Here!—lay it on my wrist, And place the other thus beneath my head! And say, sweet mother, say, when I am dead Shall I be raised?

Never beside your knee, Until I feel do you speak of that best land Where it is one bright summer always,—and storms do not come.— Oh! at the time of prayer? When you look round—and see a vacant seat? You will not wait for my coming here— You'll miss me there!

Father!—I'm going home! To the good house you speak of, that best land Where it is one bright summer always,—and storms do not come.— I must be happy then; From pain and death you say I shall be free! That sickness never enters there, and we Shall meet again!

Brother!—the little spot I used to call my garden, where long hours We've stayed to watch the budding things and flowers. Forget it not! Plant there some box or pine Something that lives in winter, and will be A verdant offering to my memory, And call it mine.

Sister!—my young Rose-tree— That little spring has been my pleasant care, Just putting forth its leaves so green and fair— I give thee.

And when its roses bloom— I shall be gone away—my short life done, But wilt you not bestow a single one Upon my tomb?

Now, mother sing the tune You sang last night—I am weary and must sleep. He weeping called my name! Say do not weep, You'll all come soon!

Morning spread over the earth, her rose wings— And the weak sufferer, cold, and ivory pale, Lay on his couch asleep. The gentle air Came through the open window, freighted with The savory odours of the early spring— He smiling it out, the hush of paeonies, Descending like a dædal in some mournful tune, But
